

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Jim Wright

Senior Building Administrator

TIME AT MCKENNA:

9 years

YEARS IN THE PLANNING/ BUILDING INDUSTRY:

43

WHERE I'M FROM:

Detroit, MI

A FAVORITE PLACE I'VE BEEN:

Vienna, Austria and Prague in the Czech Republic

ONE WORD TO DESCRIBE ME:

Intense

SOMETHING IMPORTANT I'M WORKING ON NOW:

Restoration of the Building and Code Enforcement programs for a community in mid-Michigan, the City of Vassar.

WHY I LOVE WHAT I DO:

Everyday it is something different...a new challenge and a new learning opportunity.

MY MOST MEMORABLE PROJECT/ CLIENT TO-DATE:

City of Lathrup Village, MI

ONE PLACE I'D LIKE TO GO:

Back to my roots in Scotland. I've been there many times, but not since I married my wife, Sue, and I would love to take my whole family there.

ONE OF MY FAVORITE WEBSITES/PODCASTS:

I really don't spend much time with podcasts or online. My position requires me to be in front of a screen so much, that I prefer when I can, to read.

MY ADVICE TO FUTURE BUILDING PROS:

Enjoy what you do. Have the contractor or homeowner in mind when reviewing these projects. Look for ways to assist rather than throw up road blocks.
